Follow a few easy steps to save your spot, register
for courses and become a student

1 ACCEPT YOUR OFFER OF ADMISSION

Review your (conditional) offer and follow the directions. Make sure you meet all of your conditions. Final/official transcripts need to be received at Mount Royal by Aug. 1, 2019.

Activate your MyMRU account
MyMRU.ca is the place to register for courses and pay your fees. It is also your source for campus information.

Accept your offer and pay your tuition deposit

Save your spot by accepting your offer and paying your $425, non-refundable deposit. Do this online at MyMRU.ca under the Applicant tab.

2 GET ADVICE, REGISTER AND PAY YOUR FEES

Get academic advice
Everything you need to know about getting the right advice for your program is available starting March 1, 2019 at mru.ca/BeAdvised.

Course registration

Course registration for (conditionally) admitted students begins April 8, 2019.

Credit where credit is due

If you have taken AP/IB or post-secondary courses, we will automatically assess your transfer equivalencies once we have received your final/official transcripts. View transfer equivalencies under the Applicant tab and visit mru.ca/mruGradU8 after you accept your admission offer to see if they can be used towards your program.

3 CHECK OFF ALL THE BOXES

Apply for scholarships and bursaries

Take a load off your mind and your wallet by applying for awards before March 1, 2019. mru.ca/MoneyMatters

Find your room in Residence

Residence Services guarantees placement for all new students. To be eligible for this guarantee, new students must apply and pay their security deposit by June 15, 2019. mru.ca/Residence

4 STAY CONNECTED AND IN THE LOOP

Use your MRU email account
Important information about your admission may be sent to you through your Mount Royal email account. Check your email often.

Get social

Mount Royal's social media accounts will keep you on top of your game. Get more out of #MRULife by visiting mru.ca/Social to pick and choose who you follow.
